*SOLD*This Neptuneo style property is located on the final phase of Camposol, just a short walk away from the golf course and club house. Entrance to the property is through a glazed-in terrace with comfortable seating and sliding windows. The living room is bright and spacious and benefits from a log burning fire for the cold winter months and air conditioning for the sweltering heat of the summer. The kitchen is large with plenty of surface space and comes fully equipped beside the dining area. Downstairs are two bedrooms - one double and one twin - both with ceiling fans and fitted wardrobes. The double bedroom has its own en-suite bathroom while the twin bedroom is located beside the guest bathroom. Up the external staircase is a second double bedroom with en-suite, fitted wardrobes and ceiling fan. This bedroom has the private roof solarium located through its sliding patio doors. The property has a wonderful outdoor area, with plenty of greenery decorating its front, side and rear terraces.
